Postdoctoral Fellowships for Research in Japan
Invitational Fellowships for Research in Japan
FY 2017 (2017-2018)

1. OUTLINE OF FELLOWSHIP

The Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) carries out programs that provide overseas researchers who have an excellent record of research achievements with an opportunity to conduct collaborative research, discussions, and opinion exchanges with researchers in Japan. These programs are intended to help advance the overseas researchers' research activities while promoting science and internationalization in Japan.

2. CATEGORIES

Various fellowship categories are provided to accord with the purpose of the overseas researcher's visit.

Categories		Purposes
Postdoctoral Fellowships	Standard [P]	To provide opportunities for young and excellent postdoctoral researchers from other countries to conduct, under the guidance of their hosts, cooperative research with leading research groups in universities and other Japanese institutions. The program allows such researchers to advance their own research while contributing to the progress of research in Japan and the counterpart countries.
	Short-term [PE]	To provide opportunities for young and excellent pre-/post-doctoral researchers from the US, Canada and Europe (*) to conduct, under the guidance of their hosts, cooperative research with leading research groups in universities and other Japanese institutions. In so doing, the program is designed to help advance the research of the visiting fellows, while expanding opportunities for young researchers to come to Japan from the US, Canada and Europe. *Eligible countries are the US, Canada, European Union countries (as of 1 April 2016), Switzerland, Norway and Russia.
	Pathway to University Positions in Japan (Pathway) [PU]	To provide opportunities for excellent young postdoctoral researchers from other countries to conduct, under the guidance of their hosts, cooperative research with leading research groups in universities and other Japanese institutions. The program provides a step in preparing overseas researchers to become full-time researchers at Japanese universities and other research institutions. It is designed to lead to the full-time employment of overseas researchers who will play an active role in advancing their Japanese institution's collaborative research and internationalization through such means as helping to foster globally-oriented students and faculty.
Invitation Fellowships	Long-term [L]	To invite overseas researchers with excellent records of research achievements to collaborate with Japanese colleagues in carrying out research through long-term visits.

- (10) The host institution shall take first responsibility for the fellow's actions, so must be proactive in preventing any discrimination, misconduct or misuse on the part of the fellow during his/her tenure. If any such problems should occur, the host institution will endeavor to resolve them.

12. HANDLING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

With regard to personal information contained in application materials, it shall be strictly controlled in accordance with the "Law to Protect Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions" and JSPS's own regulations for protecting personal information. 13. NOTES

- (1) JSPS does not support any research project related to military affairs.
- (2) For [P], [PE] and [PU] candidates, under each recruitment one host researcher may submit up to three applications. When multiple applications are submitted, the host should state the order of his/her priority.
- (3) With regard to [L], [S] and [E] candidates, application is limited to one candidate for each recruitment. Even in the case of a host applying for candidates under different fellowship categories, s/he may not apply for more than one candidate in a single recruitment round.
Examples:
 - i) The host may not apply for both [L] candidate and [S] candidate in the first recruitment round of a fiscal year.
 - ii) The host may apply for [L] candidate in the first recruitment round and [S] candidate in the second recruitment round of a fiscal year.
- (4) As only one application is allowed per candidate, host researchers should verify in advance that no other applications have been submitted for the candidate.
- (5) The same person may not simultaneously be a candidate for two or more kinds of fellowship programs. With [P] and [PE] candidates, however, the same person may be a candidate for both fellowships under each recruitment.
- (6) With regard to Paragraph 11 (3) above, should a host researcher be found guilty by the host institution of violating a candidate's or fellow's human rights, s/he shall be disqualified for a period of five years from hosting JSPS fellows under the programs, Postdoctoral Fellowships, Invitation Fellowships, and RONPAKU (Dissertation PhD) Program.

- (7) Should JSPS determine any information in an application to be falsified, plagiarized or otherwise flawed, the application will be rejected or, if already awarded, the fellowship withdrawn.
- (8) If the host researcher is currently conducting an international project under a JSPS program or has been selected for such a project over the past 5 years, please describe what, if any, connectivity it has to the project being applied for.
- (9) For further application details, please see the "Points to Keep in Mind When Preparing an Application Form" (for each Fellowship) on our website.
