Rules for Nominating Committee Members

- 1) The Nominating Committee Board of "JSPS Alumni Club in Denmark, hereafter referred to be as "ACD" consists of a minimum of
 - ACD Chair,
 - One ACD board member,
 - JSPS Stockholm Director and Deputy Director.

- 2) The ACD Chair and JSPS Stockholm Director are each eligible to choose two additional members to sit on the Nominating Committee Board. The maximum number of members is therefore 8 persons.

- 3) Qualifications of additional Nominating Committee members
 - Relevance of their scientific backgrounds is to be determined by the ACD board together with the JSPS Stockholm Office.

- 4) The ACD Chair, JSPS Stockholm Director and Deputy Director will serve on the committee as long as they hold these positions.
The other committee members should serve for a term of two years, and can be re-elected once.
The one mandatory ACD board member serving on the committee is to be selected at an ACD board meeting. In the case of a vacancy, it is to be filled at the next ACD board meeting. If deemed necessary, an extra board meeting may be called for this purpose.
Vacancies caused by the resignation of additional members may be filled by the original nominators: the JSPS Stockholm Director or ACD Chair.

- 5) The ACD Chair will automatically serve as the Nominating Committee Chair.
