

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science
BRIDGE Fellowship Program

Rules for Nominating Committee Members

Nominating committee members for the Bridge Fellowship program for Indian JSPS Alumni Association are:

1. Chairman of Indian JSPS Alumni Association
2. Vice-Chairman of Indian JSPS Alumni Association (2 persons)
3. General Secretary of Indian JSPS Alumni Association
4. JSPS official in the Japanese embassy in India, Delhi

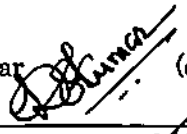

Indian JSPS Alumni Association's Chair will be the Chairman of the Bridge Nominating Committee Chairman. If he is stepping down, (from the chairman position of Indian JSPS Alumni Association) from the position then the Vice Chairman of Indian JSPS Alumni will become the member of the nominating committee and Chairman of the Bridge committee until new chairman.

This same above rule will be applicable to the position of General Secretary Indian JSPS Association's Bridge fellowship program. If General Secretary is going to stepping down, until the new General Secretary selected, either one of the joint secretary's will become member of the Bridge fellowship program, who will be selected by Chairman of the Indian JSPS Alumni Association after the approval of the Executive Committee.

Person recommended by JSPS who is working in the Japanese embassy in India, Delhi will always a member of the Bridge fellowship program and in his absence, after consultation with JSPS head office, and after their recommendation position of the JSPS official will be filled.

Name of Alumni Association : Indian JSPS Alumni Association

Signatures:

Alumni Association Chair: Prof. D. Sakthi Kumar  (date) Jan 21, 2022

Nominating Committee Chair: Prof. D. Sakthi Kumar  (date) Jan 21, 2022

JSPS overseas office Director*: Mr. Nishi Ryuhei  (date)

*If there is no JSPS overseas office in the country of your alumni association, please have the designated official in the Japanese Embassy sign this document. (The name of the official will be sent to you separately.)