Rules for Nominating Committee Members

1. There will be three members in the nominating committee:
 - i) The President of our Association, ii) The Secretary of our Association, and iii) The JSPS designated Embassy official.
2. The term of the two committee members from our association will be three years. This rule will not be applicable to the JSPS-designated Embassy official.
3. In case of the completion of the term of the two positions from our association, the Vice President of our association will replace one of the positions. Another position, as well as the replacement for the Vice President, if needed, will be selected by the executive committee meeting of our association from our executive committee members with 67% of the meeting attendance agreeing to the endorsement. Once the posts of the President and the Secretary of our association is replaced, the positions of the two nominating committee members from our association will automatically shift to them.
4. 4. The President of our association will be the chair of the nominating committee. In case of the expiry of his/her term or his/her stepping down from the chair, the Vice President of our association will be the chair of the nominating committee until the new President is selected.
5. In case of the expiry of the Secretary or his/her stepping down from the nominating committee, another executive member will replace him/her in the committee by the executive committee.
6. The designation and replacement of the JSPS-designated Embassy official will solely be decided by the JSPS head office
