Rules for Nominating Committee Members

- 1) The Nominating Committee Board of “JSPS Alumni Club in Sweden, hereafter referred to be as “SAC” consists of a minimum of
 - SAC Chair,
 - one SAC board member,
 - JSPS Stockholm Director and Deputy Director.
- 2) The SAC Chair and JSPS Stockholm Director are each eligible to choose two additional members to sit on the Nominating Committee Board. The maximum number of members is therefore 8 persons.
- 3) Qualifications of additional Nominating Committee members
 - Relevance of their scientific backgrounds is to be determined by the SAC board together with the JSPS Stockholm Office.
- 4) The SAC Chair, JSPS Stockholm Director and Deputy Director will serve on the committee as long as they hold these positions.

The other committee members should serve for a term of two years, and can be re-elected once.

The one mandatory SAC board member serving on the committee is to be selected at a SAC board meeting. In the case of a vacancy, it is to be filled at the next SAC board meeting. If deemed necessary, an extra board meeting may be called for this purpose.

Vacancies caused by the resignation of additional members may be filled by the original nominators: the JSPS Stockholm Director or SAC Chair.
- 5) The SAC Chair will automatically serve as the Nominating Committee Chair.
