

Mariko Hasegawa, Ph.D.

President, Japan Arts Council

1. Research interests: Behavioral ecology, Evolutionary psychology, Physical anthropology

2. Education:

- Ph.D., 1986, Graduate School of Physical Anthropology, the University of Tokyo

3. Job history:

- 1980-1982; Wildlife research officer, The Division of Wildlife, The Ministry of Natural Resources and Tourism, Tanzania
- 1983-1990; Assistant professor, Department of Anthropology, Faculty of Science, the University of Tokyo
- 1990-2000; Associate professor, and Professor, Faculty of Law, Senshu University
- 2000-2006; Professor, Faculty of Political and Economic Science, Waseda University
- 2006-present; Professor, Department of Evolutionary Studies of Biosystems, School of Advanced Science, The Graduate University for the Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
- 2011-March, 2014; Dean, School of Advanced Science, The Graduate University for the Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
- April, 2014 ; Executive Vice President, The Graduate University for the Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
- 2016-2017; Executive Director, The Graduate University for the Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
- April, 2017-March, 2023 ; President, The Graduate University for the Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
- April, 2023- President, Japan Arts Council

4. Service and honors

- The Best Poster Award, The Human Behavior and Evolution Society, 1996
- The Best Scholar for Education and Public Understanding of Evolution, Japanese Society for the Study of Evolution, 2001
- Hidaka Award, Japanese Society for Animal Behavior, 2012
- The Order of the Rising Sun, Gold Rays with Neck Ribbon, 2023