

Name: Jean Zinn-Justin

Scientific adviser

IRFU/CEA

Degrees:

1964 Graduation from Ecole Polytechnique (France)

1968 Doctorat des Sciences (Université d'Orsay)

Positions:

1970-2003 Permanent position, Institute for Theoretical Physics CEA-Saclay

1971-1972 Research Associate, State University of Stony-Brook, (USA)

1974-1975 CERN fellow

1977-1978 (fall term) Lecturer, Princeton University (USA)

1989-1990 (fall term) Invited Professor and Loeb lecturer, Harvard University (USA)

1993-1998 Head of Institute for Theoretical Physics, CEA-Saclay

1998-1999 (fall term) Harris visiting scholar at MIT and invited scientist at Harvard (USA)

2003-2008 Head of IRFU (the Institute of Research into the Fundamental laws of the Universe) CEA/Saclay

2010- Adjunct professor of Shanghai University

1987-1995 Head of "Ecole de Physique des Houches"

1994-1999 Head Editor of Journal of Physics A (IOPP)

Academic societies:

2011- Member, French Academy of Sciences

2010- Corresponding member, Academy of Science and Literature of Mainz (Germany)

Awards:

1974 Peccot prize of Collège de France

1977 Langevin prize of the French Physical Society

1981 Ampère prize of the French Academy of Sciences

1996 Gentner-Kastler prize of French and German physical societies,

1990 Harvard Loeb lecturer

1998 MIT Harris visiting scholar,

2001 Schrödinger professor at Vienna University

2003 Humboldt–Gay-Lussac prize (Humboldt Foundation)

2010 Doctor Honoris Causa, Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule Zürich

2013 Distinguished Israel Pollak Lecturer at Technion (Israel)