

Curriculum Vitae of Shoken MIYAMA

Shoken MIYAMA (Male)

President, Gifu Shotoku Gakuen University

Academic advisor, Hiroshima University

Member, Science Council of JAPAN

Research Field:

Theoretical Astronomy (Formation Process of Stars and Planets, Search for Extrasolar Planets)

Educational Career:

1975, Bachelor, Department of Physics, Kyoto University

1981, Doctor of Science, Department of Physics, Kyoto University

Professional Career:

1983, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Science, Kyoto University

1989, Associate Professor, Theoretical Division, National Astronomical Observatory of JAPAN (NAOJ)

1992, Professor, Theoretical Division, NAOJ

1992-1996 Division Director of Theoretical Division, NAOJ

1996-2004 Executive Director of NAOJ

2004-2006 Vice Director General of NAOJ

2006-2012 Director General of NAOJ

2012-2021 Professor (Special Appointment), Hiroshima University

2015-2019 Project Professor & Director, Center for Planetary Science, Kobe University

2021 President, Gifu Shotoku Gakuen University

2021 Academic advisor, Hiroshima University

The Belonging Society:

The Astronomical Society of Japan (Member of the Council)

The Physical Society of Japan

The Japanese Society of Planetary

Science Member of International Astronomical Union