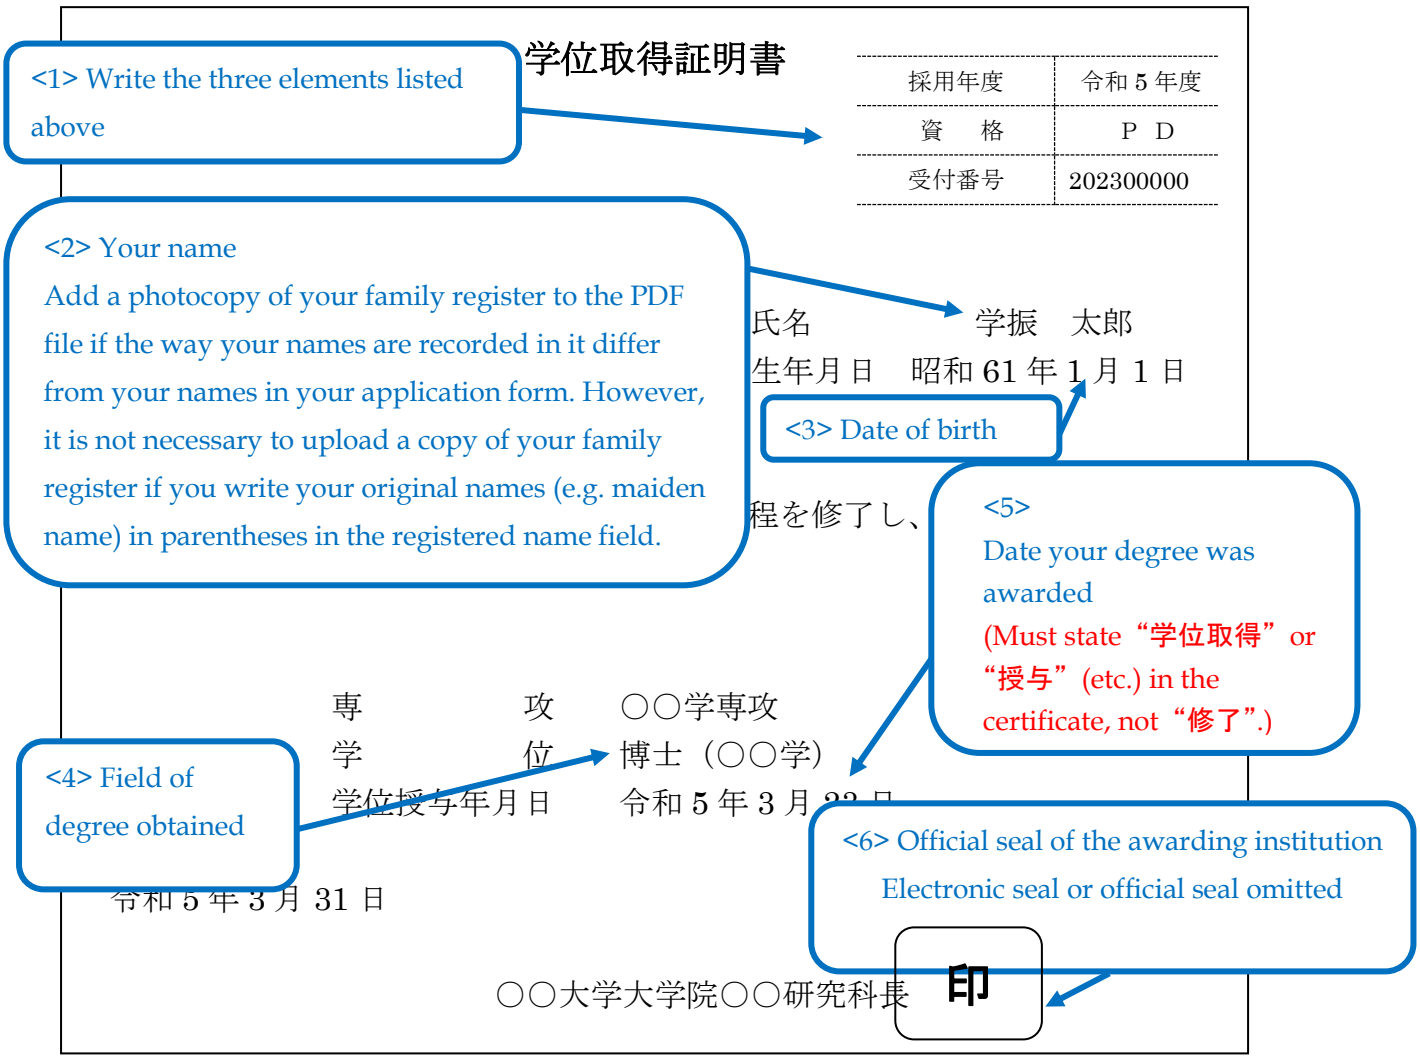
Sample1 Document to certify the date of PhD award (PDs and RPDs)

- Confirm that all of the following contents are contained in your PhD degree certificate:
- Submit a certificate written in Japanese if your degree was received from a university in Japan.
- Write the following items on the top right corner of your uploading documentations. Either hand-writing or typing is acceptable.
  (1) Fiscal year that your fellowship tenure starts, (2) your fellowship category, and (3) application number
- Add a photocopy of your diploma to the PDF file if your certificate does not contain all the elements described below.



If you have/will receive your doctorate from a university outside Japan, please add a Japanese translation. And if your certificate doesn't contain all the required elements, please submit all of the following documents in one PDF file.

1. A photocopy of your diploma (with Japanese translation)
2. A photocopy of your passport
3. Certificate issued by the university that awarded your degree
   (e.g., academic transcript, certificate of course completion)

Add another documentation to complement these three if they fail to cover the above required elements.
