Starting from the FY2024 programs, applications for Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research—KAKENHI— for JSPS Research Fellows (Hereinafter, “Grant-in-Aid for JSPS Fellows”) will be accepted at the same time as the applications for JSPS Research Fellowships. The conventional JSPS Electronic Application System for KAKENHI will not be used for the application procedures.

*1 The application information must be entered directly in the System. However, if you do not have enough space for columns (viii) Academic degrees, (ix) Status of doctoral course studies, and/or (x) Research, job experience, etc., you need to enter the information on the form Additional page for (viii) Academic degrees, (ix) Status of doctoral course studies, and (x) Research, job experience, etc. (Word, etc.). You can download the form from the JSPS website, and upload the completed file in the Application Information screen of the System. For more information, see Section II. VI. Evaluation Report

[For Applicants]

(1) The evaluation report is to be prepared by the researcher entered in the (xii) Current Academic Supervisor field.

Before sending a request for the preparation of the evaluation report, you should revisit the instructions on Field (xii) under Section II. Entering your Application Information in this document.

(2) After you complete entering the application information, click on the Request Preparation of Evaluation Report button in the Application Management screen.

*Before clicking on this button, be sure to contact your evaluator and obtain consent on the preparation of the evaluation report.

(3) In the Confirm Request for Preparation of Evaluation Report screen, enter/check each field based on the following guidance.

*For the table below:

- Gray: Fields to confirm content only
- Pink: Mandatory fields (to be selected)
- Not highlighted: Optional or fields for relevant applicants only

Field	Instructions
Requested Deadline*	Enter the deadline for the preparation of the evaluation report that the applicant requests the evaluator to meet. The evaluator will be notified the requested deadline that you enter in this field. The evaluation report can be submitted after this requested deadline so long as it is before the deadline for the submission of Application Forms.
Title of Research Proposal	(Japanese) Check to make sure that the title of your research proposal is correct. *You may change the Japanese title of your research proposal after you make a request for the evaluation report. The Title of Research Proposal field on the evaluator's screen will automatically reflect the changes you make. Inform your evaluator as necessary of any changes. *If you revised the title of your research proposal after the evaluation report has been submitted, resubmission of the evaluation report is not necessary.
	(English) If you are asking a foreign researcher to prepare your evaluation report, you can enter the title of your research proposal in English as reference. The maximum length is 250 letters (single-byte alphabetic letters, numbers, underscores, periods, and dashes). *You cannot change the English title of your research proposal after you make a request for the evaluation report. (The English title of research proposal will not appear in the application documents.)
Evaluator	Check to make sure that the information is correct. JSPS will use the e-mail address entered here to send the link to the website, login ID, and password for the evaluator to prepare the evaluation report. Make sure to enter the e-mail address correctly. You must enter the evaluator's own e-mail address. Applicants are not allowed to enter their own e-mail address in this field.

When you click on the Revise information on evaluator button in the Application Management screen after your evaluator has submitted the evaluation report, the evaluation report submission status will change back to Not submitted.

*The content of the evaluation report will be retained in the System.

- (4) An e-mail will be sent to the evaluator through the System, requesting the preparation of the evaluation report. The evaluator, in person, must access the website provided in this e-mail, and log into the System using the ID and password also provided to create the evaluation report.

The evaluator's password can be reissued in the System by the applicant.

*JSPS cannot reissue the evaluator's password. If your evaluator asks you to reissue the evaluator's password, you may do so by logging in to the System and clicking on the Reissue evaluator's password button. The reissued password will be sent to the evaluator by e-mail.

*The content of the evaluation report will be retained in the System even if the password has been reissued.

- (5) As e-mails from the System are sometimes denied, be sure to contact the evaluator in person and check whether the e-mail was properly delivered. If the evaluator was not able to receive the e-mail, check and correct the e-mail address and other entries, and repeat the Request Preparation of Evaluation Report process.

- (6) Once the evaluator submits the evaluation report, the System will send an e-mail to the e-mail address indicated in the Preferred Contact field of the application information, notifying that the evaluator has completed the evaluation report. The status of submission of the evaluation report will be displayed as "submitted" in the relevant Process Status field in the Application Management screen. You cannot submit your application documents until the evaluation report is submitted.

*Neither the applicant nor the applying organization (nor the administration office of each academic unit) will have access to the content of the evaluation report. The applicant will only be notified that the evaluator has submitted the evaluation report.

- * Clicking on the Change evaluator to different researcher button in the Application Management screen will invalidate the ID issued to the previous evaluator (for the preparation of the evaluation report), and all data of the evaluation report in preparation or already submitted will be deleted.

*The evaluator does not have access to the content of your application documents in the System. If you wish to have your evaluator check the application documents, you should contact them by different means.

[For Evaluators]

(1) Upon receiving an e-mail from the System notifying that the applicant is requesting the preparation of the evaluation report, please access the website provided in the e-mail, and log into the System using the ID and password also provided to create the evaluation report.

The evaluator's password can only be reissued by the applicant in person.
JSPS cannot reissue the evaluator's password. Ask the applicant to reissue the password.
 The reissued password will be sent to you by e-mail.

The content of the evaluation report will be retained in the System even if the password has been reissued.

(2) Evaluators should refer to the following instructions on how to enter/check the fields to be completed by the evaluators.

*The sample evaluation report on the JSPS website is in Japanese only, but the field names, instructions, etc. on the evaluators' screen are accompanied by English translations.

*For instructions on how to use the JSPS Electronic Application System for the preparation of the evaluation report, evaluators should refer to Operation Manual for Research Fellowship Program Evaluators.

• Operation manual for evaluators:

<https://www.shinsei.jsps.go.jp/topyousei/download-yo.html#a5>

*The evaluator does not have access to the content of the application documents in the System. If you need to check the application documents, please ask the applicant directly.

(3) The evaluation report information page will be disconnected in roughly 60 minutes (plus or minus, depending on the timer in the System) from the time the page is opened. Evaluators should save their entries frequently.

A Session Timeout alert will appear after 45 minutes. Clicking the OK button will extend the session.

*For the table below:

- Gray: Fields to confirm content only
- Yellow: Mandatory field (text)
