(in Japanese) ノンコーディング RNA による遺伝子発現制御

- Lecture summary (講演概要): Please summary your lecture 200-500 words.
In this presentation, I talked about my professional choice to work in science by going through my academic accomplishments as well as talking about my current research interests. I introduced the field of gene regulation emphasizing the key technological improvements and the direct implications in medical biology. I first talked about distant DNA regulatory elements, named enhancers, on which I spend about half of my PhD thesis. In a second part I presented the field of research that I am currently wotking on : the regulatory non-coding RNAs. I gave historical as well as detailed molecular information. Finally, I concluded my presentation by talking about the daily life of a researcher as well as mentioning the different skills requested by our profession.
