Please understand that I have no offence, and I appologize if it does. But I'm sorry to say postdoctoral researchers are really busy. I already have to work 70-80 hours a week, and I feel very sorry that I have to work another extra hour for filling this sheet. Couldn't you ask the high school teacher to do it?

I was given a list of requirements. I don't think it is possible to satisfy it in 45 minutes, although I tried very hard. Maybe next time you ask the presenter to do only one of thme, which will make it much eaiser.

Here is the list of requirments:
