In this lecture: first, I introduced my birth place and my nation. Students gave their attentions for hearing different living place and different culture. It's always interesting to know different things.

Second, I introduced basic information about astronomy. I gave fundamental knowledges about astronomy, this is useful to let students understand more things about universe. Third, I told them the research field what I have been working.

Forth, I discussed the importance of Astronomy and importance of science. I also emphasized the important role of learning English for science. The whole process was very nice. Students interacted with me very positively. They asked me many questions.

This is very meaningful and interesting event.
