My research of the doctoral course focus on contents of from ancient manuscript Chinese character dictionary of Tenreibanshōmeigi to deciphered electronic text. This lecture I will provide a detailed introduction of the transliteration, the full-text deciphered electronic text, and publication systems, based on the ancient manuscript Chinese character dictionary of Kōnsanjibon Tenreibanshōmeigi 高山寺本篆隸万象名義. The Tenreibanshōmeigi (after 830) is an abridgement of the Yuanben Yupian 原本玉篇, which was compiled in 543 by Guyewang 顧野王 in China. Because the Yupian was lost in China, and only 7 volumes have preserved in Japan, this is a very valuable resource for attaining a glimpse of the Yupian's original form.
