Second, four parts of my lecture: 1) universal signs/symbols/images used all over the world and their meaning and explanation; 2) different signs or symbols used in Japan and China and their different knowledge and wisdom behind them; 3) different images in Japan and China and USA, such as images on bank notes and national flags, and different knowledge and wisdom reflected in those images; 4) the same meaning and the same written form shared in Japanese and Chinese language; the same form but different meaning in Japanese and Chinese language; and their knowledge and wisdom behind those linguistic signs.

Last, my CONCLUSION: We live by signs/symbols/images, because we live in a sea of signs/symbols/images which are meaningful and full of information; we use signs/symbols/images
