The lecture was divided into three phases- self introductions, role of social scientists and my research. Additionally I also introduced some interesting facts about India and the educational system of India.

About the research aspect of it, I began my lecture by introducing who the refugees are, followed by the various types of refugees. Stressing on the stateless refugees, I introduced the Rohingya refugee situation. I spoke about the history of the Rohingya refugees and the root to why the Rohingyas are being subjected to such discrimination.
