【Name of project】 (Adopted year: FY2022)

Nurturing a Global Entrepreneurship Mindset — Start-Up Collaboration among Business Communities, Local Governments and a University Global Network

【Summary of Inter-University Exchange Projects】

【Summary of Exchange program】

This project is aimed at developing a global entrepreneurship education program capable of instilling within students an innovator’s mindset capable of leading institutions in an increasingly multicultural world. Building upon past international education collaborations, KUISS’ will work with local government and business organizations along with higher education institutions in Australia, India, Canada and the UK as well as domestic universities from Kobe and Miyazaki.

【Global Human Resource on the project】

To train students with an entrepreneur’s mindset capable of both working with diverse teams and driving innovation in an international context. Through this program, these international innovators will thus be better able to respond to the changing international business and technical environment, thereby be better prepared to serve as future leaders capable of solving diverse international issues.

【Feature on the project】

This project provides interactive training programs for students from member institutions such as Australia, Canada, U.K., and India, as well as domestic universities such as Kobe Design University and Miyazaki-International College.
